

Providing a higher level of Hometown Health Care.

James Dalton Medical Office Now Accepting Patients in Angels Camp

Hometown health care is now state-of-the-art with completion of the James Dalton Medical Office in Angels Camp at 590 Stanislaus Ave.

The new facility is part of Mark Twain Medical Center's network of clinics and specialty care centers in Calaveras County communities.

The JDMO offers residents of Angels Camp and neighboring communities the opportunity to establish local health care relationships with primary care physicians in an outstanding new facility.
